Mrs. Wm. Winchell Dies Of Cancer At Her Home In Tobinsport, Ind.

After a long illness of cancer, Mrs. William Winchell passed away at her late home in Tobinsport, Ind., on Friday evening. Last summer Mrs. Winchell underwent an operation at the Norton Memorial Infirmary, Louisville but her condition did not improve and the end was not unexpected.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon and the burial took place in the Tobinsport cemetery. Rev. Winchell had charge of the services.

Mrs. Winchell leaves her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Hammerick of Indianapolis and Miss Veva Winchell of Tobinsport; four sons, James L. Winchell of this place, Owen, Burton and Harold Winchell of Tobinsport.

Young Life Ends After Illness Of Many Months.

Mrs. Goldie Hatfield Johnson, who has been ill with tuberculosis for several months, succumbed at her home in this city Friday morning. The funeral was held from the Baptist church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and the burial took place in the Cloverport cemetery. Rev. A. N. Couch conducted the services.

Mrs. Johnson was the wife of Roy Johnson, and she was about 23 years old. Previous to moving here, they lived in Rockport, Ind.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hatfield. Besides her husband and parents she leaves a nine months old baby.

Gets Face Burned

Mrs. Gus May made a narrow escape from being severely burned last Friday morning at her home while trying to light the gas in the kitchen stove. Mrs. May turned the gas on in the oven and leaving it to get a match, she then lighted it and the gas blew out in her face, burning her left eye-brow quite badly and her hair was considerably singed.

Gave A Delightful Party For A Friend.

Kirk, Ky., Jan. 25, 1919 (Special)—Miss Regina McGary was hostess to a delightful party at her home last Monday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Viola Greenwell of Alton, Ill. Delightful refreshments were served, and the guests enjoyed the musical feature of the evening.

Those present were: Misses Viola Greenwell, Katie Jarboe, Viola Frank Anna Lee Mattingly, Jessie Mattingly, Aliene Miller, Frances Mattingly, Virginia Rhodes, Lulie G. Miller, Helen Sheeran, Stella Ryan, Lucille Ryan and Irene McGary. Messrs. LeSeur Miller, Bruce Miller, Wilson Frank, J. E. Monarch, Robert Higdon Lee Sheeran, Allen Rhodes, Percy McGary and Isadore McGary.

A car full of young people from Hardinsburg started to the party, but on account of the muddy roads they were unable to get all the way.

In Sweet Memory.

Of our dearly beloved daughter and sister, Ocie A. Hendrickson, who passed away January 5, 1919 in her 6th year.

"Only Sleeping."

"Sometime, someday our eyes shall see"

The face we loved so well:

Sometime our hands shall press in hers

And never say farewell:

Her merry laugh, we hear no more,

Her voice we loved is stilled:

A place is vacant in our home

Which never can be filled.

God needed one more angel child

Amid his shining band:

And so He bent with loving smile,

And clasped our darling's hand."

Sadly missed by her loving Parents, Sisters and Brothers.

Mrs. O. B. Hendrickson.

REMEMBER

SIMPLICITY MARKS THE FUNERAL

Of Mr. W. H. Bowmer. Retired Merchant and Banker Has A Long And Useful Career.

The funeral of Mr. William H. Bowmer, whose death occurred in St. Petersburg, Fla., early Wednesday morning, was held from his late residence in this city, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services, tho very simple, was most impressive and consisted mainly in the reading of the scripture and Tennyson's poem, "Crossing the Bar," by the Rev. W. O. Rickard. At the close of this, the remains were taken to the Cloverport cemetery for interment.

The casket was borne by Mr. Bowmer's oldest grand-son, Bowmer Burks of Dallas, Texas, and five of his nephews; Messrs Chas. B. Skillman, Morganfield; James R. Skillman and Thos. Bowmer, of Louisville Ben Hawes, Maceo; and O. T. Skillman of this place.

The honorary pall-bearers were: Messrs: J. C. Jarboe, Frank Payne, David B. Phelps, L. McGavock, J. C. Nolte, Jno. D. Babbage, C. W. Moorman and Mayor Jon. A. Barry.

Died Suddenly

Mr. Bowmer's death was due to heart failure. On Jan. 8, he with Mrs. Bowmer left home and went to Atlanta where they spent several days with their daughter, Mrs. Chas Moorman, Jr., and Mr. Moorman; and from there they went to St. Petersburg on Saturday where they expected to remain until Spring.

The following Wednesday, about three o'clock in the morning, Mr. Bowmer became ill very suddenly, and within an hour's time life was extinct.

Born In Breckinridge County.

Mr. William Haynes Bowmer was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Bowmer, and was born near Hardinsburg, Ky., August 8, 1837. In 1858, Mr. Bowmer started out from his birth place, and came to Cloverport.

The first year after coming here he taught school in Tobinsport, Ind., just across the river. From there he went to Fordsville, staying two years, and then returned here and became a partner in the mercantile business of Hambleton-Skillman & Co.

Mr. Bowmer remained in this company for several years, when he decided to go in the mercantile business for himself, which he did, and later on formed a partnership with the late Mr. Marion Hambleton. Their store was one of the largest business concerns in Cloverport at that time, and they occupied the building that formerly stood on the corner where J. C. Nolte & Bro's store is at present.

When he was about 60 years old, Mr. Bowmer dissolved partnership and sold his interests to Mr. H. A. Oelze, deceased.

President of Bank 30 Years.

While he was yet in the mercantile business, Cloverport's first bank, the Breckinridge Bank was organized, and Mr. Bowmer was elected its first president.

He held that place for thirty years or until this bank consolidated with the Bank of Cloverport, then Mr. Bowmer retired from the business realm altogether, and he was succeeded in the new Bank by Mr. A. B. Skillman.

Mr. Bowmer's career was one of usefulness and consistency. He was of a very retiring nature unostentatious in his tastes, therefore he lived a simple and unpretentious life, tho it was filled with the noblest works known only to those closest associated with him.

He was a loyal member of the Cloverport Methodist church, and had been a steward of that institution for several years.

Married Nearly 55 Years.

Mr. Bowmer was married to Miss Margaret Sterrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sterrett of Hancock County, on October 20, 1864. A little over four years ago, he with Mrs.

Birth Announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Beard of Hardinsburg are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a grandson, Herbert Bucklin White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleon E. White of Boston, who arrived Jan. 21. The mother formerly was Miss Hannah Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Martin of this city are the happy parents of their third son, Archie Wood Martin born Jan. 22, and weighed 10 pounds.

Lee Allen Miller Returns To Civilian Life.

The following letter was written to Mrs. C. A. Miller of Alexis, Ill., concerning her soldier son, Lee Allen Miller who has been stationed at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C.:

Company B. 307 Bn. T. C. U. S. A.
Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C.
December 12 1918.

Mrs. C. A. Miller,

Alexis, Ill.

In a few days your soldier will receive his honorable discharge and start for home.

He is bringing back many fine qualities of body and mind which he has acquired or developed in the Military Service. The Army has done everything it could to make him strong, fine, self-reliant, yet self-controlled. It returns him to you a better man.

You have been an important member of that great Army of Encouragement and enthusiasm which helped to make him and us all better soldiers. You can now be a great help in keeping alive the good qualities he is bringing back from the army, in making him as good a citizen as he has been a good soldier.

His fare and necessary expenses to his home will be paid by the Government. He will receive all pay due him. He may, if he wishes, wear his uniform for three months from the date of his discharge. The Government will also allow him to keep up, for the benefit of his family, his insurance, at the very low rate he is now paying.

His return to civil life will bring back new problems for both to solve. The qualities he brings back will help you now as your encouragement helped him while he was away, and in your hands and his, rests the future of our country.

As his Commanding Officer, I am proud of him. He has done his duty well. I, and his comrades, will bid him good-bye with deep regret, and wish him every success after he returns home—that spot in every man's heart no other place can fill.

Joe L. Presley,

2nd Lieut. Inf. U. S. A. Commanding

Company B. 307th Bn. T. C.

He arrived at his home in Alexis, and is looking fine, so his friends say.

Bowmer celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in the same home where they took up their abode fifty years past.

Mr. Bowmer was the father of eight children, one died in infancy, and Robert Holt Bowmer lived to be four years of age. The six living children who survive with his widow are Mrs. Nellie Burks, Louisville; Mrs. Walter Sherman, Toledo, O.; Mr. Wm. S. Bowmer, St. Louis; Mrs. Chas K. Minary, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Mrs. Hugh Atkinson, Chicago, and Mrs. Chas W. Moorman, Jr., Atlanta.

Besides these, there are thirteen grandchildren, and one great-grandchild, Margaret Baird Burks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bowmer Burks. And one sister, Mrs. A. B. Skillman who is the last member of that immediate family.

AGED RESIDENT OF TOBINSPOET SUCCUMBS

Mr. J. H. Payne's Death Due To Dropsy. Confined At Home For Two Years.

Mr. James H. Payne, a farmer and a long resident of Tobinsport, Ind., succumbed to dropsy Saturday morning after an illness of two years during which time he was confined to his home continuously.

On Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the funeral was held by Rev. Winchell, and the body was interred in the Tobinsport cemetery.

Mr. Payne was 70 years old, and a Virginian by birth. When he was 12 years old, he with his parents moved to Tobinsport, and Mr. Payne has lived there ever since, all the time being actively engaged in farming until his health failed two years ago. Besides being a splendid farmer, Mr. Payne was a citizen of worth and held in high regard by his friends and associates, who knew him as, "Doc." Surviving him are his widow and three daughters, Mrs. Fred Hawkins and Miss Beatrice Payne of Tobinsport, Mrs. Allie Solbrig of Louisville; one son, Loyd Payne of Louisville. Mr. Frank Payne of this city was a first cousin of the deceased.

Miss McClarty Dies In Owensboro At Her Sister's.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

There is going to be a great Farmers' Week at Lexington from January 28th to the 31st. There is not a farmer in the county who will not be well repaid for his time and expenses while attending the meeting. The new Dean promises a greater program than ever. From what I have learned of preparations being made I can personally assure you that you will enjoy the meeting, learn things that will be of value to you and can come home to a of greater service to yourself and county. An effort is being made to secure a large enough delegation from Breckinridge county to show them at Lexington that farmers from this county are as progressive as from other parts of the state. Come and help us show them. I am making an effort to get a party rate from Hardinsburg, the party leaving on the morning of Jan. 27th. Anyone wanting to take advantage of this rate can do so by letting me know before that day.

Hoping that we will have a good delegation at the meeting, I am

Yours very truly,

Tobacco Brings Good Prices

Next Sale, Saturday, Feb. 1st

We had one of the best sales of the season last Saturday. Prices were better, and the sales exceeded those of the preceeding Saturday very largely. Dark tobacco brought from $7.50 to $25.00 per hundred; and Burley sold for $14.00 to $50.00.

In comparing the prices with last week; the highest price for dark was $23.50, and Burley $46. We are keeping our pledge in securing the highest market prices for our customers. Remember the sale, Feb. 21.

TULLE HAT VOGUE

Headgear Classified as Newest and Most Up-to-Date.

Unexpected Creation Appears When Toques and Bonnets to Match Winter Togs are Worn.

After all it is the unexpected and unusual little thing which seems to set the final seal of success on one's appearance. Smartly dressed women realize this and often gain their reputation for being smartly dressed by the addition of something original and pleasing—and perhaps also a bit more daring than the more conservative choice.

Nothing is more unexpected at this time, writes a fashion correspondent, than the vogue of the tulle hat, for instance. Just what most of us are reaching out after fur toques and bonnets to match our heavy winter togs the very newest, most up-to-date creation of millinery appears to be the tulle hat. It has taken on surprising shapes also, as for instance a curious, upstanding brown tulle bonnet with a crown like a Cossack's cap. Around the brim flares a band of tulle which ends in a flat, smart bow directly over the face.

As yet it is only the brown tulle hat which seems to be favored. This suggests coquetry, for long ago French women decreed that the very perfection of artistic effect was produced by a hat of so nearly the exact shade of the hair that one could hardly tell where but left off and hair began, so clearly and softly did the two mingle. Of course the brown shades of tulle permit this perfect harmony, as brown hair is easily matched.

Along with the tulle hat come some new feather trimmings—feathers trained and curled into all sorts of designs, such as leaves, blossoms, triangles, rosettes and cockades. A certain wide-brimmed hat of leaf brown tulle which has been much admired has its crown entirely covered with feather leaves laid on quite flat and overlapping so that nothing of the hat underneath is visible. The hem is wide and flaring and is made of several layers of tulle placed one above the other.

Another hat of the same sort, also, is being worn. It is a development of the back country and it gives their organizing ability to solution of the problem in support of the plans of the organized agricultural agencies responsible for the development of the back country and the improvement of the life of the people.

The Popular Tulle Hat.

the thinnest of crowns through which the hair shows prettily. Of course these frail and delicate chapeaux are intended only for the most elaborate and dressy occasions, such as matinees, afternoon teas and restaurant wear.

A variation of the tulle-draped toque of the summer has appeared in a smart model of moleskin and taupe-colored silk net. The fur and the net are cunningly draped together to form the close-fitting hat. From the back the net falls away into a long veil, which ends in a deep band of the moleskin finished with a button and catch to fasten at the back, thus presenting the appearance of a fur collar.

Breaking It Gently.
Kind Old Lady (visiting penitentiary)—Ah, my poor fellow; you look like an honest man. Why did they put you here?
Poor Fellow—Yer right; it was a shame, leddy. They put me here just fer tryin' to open up a little business.
Kind Old Lady—Why, that was an outrage! What kind of a business was it?
Poor Fellow—The little business on the front of a safe.

Saw Another Chance.
"Say, that lot you sold me is three feet under the water."
"Is it?"
"Yes, it is, and you know it."
"Well, it's a good thing you told me. I can let you have a bargain in a canoe."—Kansas City Journal.

Where Methodist Eyes of the World Will Center Next June and July

Glimpse of Magnificent Exposition Grounds at Columbus, O., being prepared for a display of Methodist activities from all parts of the globe. Inset shows Dr. D. D. Forsyth, Philadelphia, Chairman of the Joint Centenary Committee of the M. E. Church.

COLUMBUS, O.—(Special.)—Methodist ministers and laymen to the number of several thousands are getting their concrete notions of what the Methodist Centenary Celebration, to be held here June 20 to July 7, will be like. Attending a special regional meeting, at which men like Bishop Wilson, R. A. Ward and Fred B. Fisher of New York; Bishop McDowell, Washington; Bishop Warner, India; S. Earl Taylor, director general of the celebration; D. D. Forsyth, Philadelphia; C. F. Reisner, New York; Edgar Blake, Chicago, and R. S. Cushman, New York, are speakers, they have still enjoyed an opportunity to visit the exposition grounds where for weeks past work has been in progress preparing for the tremendous celebration for which it is expected that more than 100,000 Methodists will journey to Columbus from all parts of the United States.

The spacious buildings already provided by the state of Ohio are being modified and extended to meet the peculiar needs of the Methodist Celebration. This will visualize to pastor and laymen the work of the church at home and the work of the church abroad. Here will be seen, with all the fidelity and detail of a world exposition, the natives of all the countries in which the Methodist church operates as a missionary force. Here, too, will be set forth all the work in this country. Essentially the entire world of Methodism will be brought to Columbus and displayed in its original colors and with all the circumstance and surrounding of its various habitations on the globe.

Two special pageants are being planned and many lesser ones. A climax of the celebration will be a symbolic representation of the drawing together of all the nations of the earth through the gospel of Christ.

In order to care for the throngs that are certain to be in attendance an extensive bureau already has been organized. Registrations and reservations already are being made for interested Methodists throughout the United States.

H. B. Dickson, organizing secretary of the Centenary Celebration, is occupying two entire floors of a large office building, with the incidental corps of assistants to take care of the work.

IF YOU WISH TO LOOK YOUNG RICH STYLE OF OPERA CLOAK

Careful Attention to the Hair Is Decidedly Important, Advises an Authority.

If you expect your hair to be fair to you then pray be fair to your hair. If you expect your hair not to make you look any older than you are, and to lend itself to becoming arrangement, then remember that there are certain indulgences and attentions that you owe to your hair, writes an authority.

One thing American women don't do very often, and they really ought to do, is to let their hair hang down loose. The English woman will take the pins out of her hair and let it ripple unconfinely over her shoulders every chance she gets. If she takes a little mid-day nap she is not content unless her hair is down and she really enjoys giving her hair a sunbath when she finds a little leisure on a winter's day and a sunshiny window in which to do it.

On the other hand, American women are more fastidious about washing their hair than are any other women. They should remember that sometimes an air and sun bath is as beneficial as a water and soap bath.

Even oldish women's hair has a wonderful way of restoring itself to health if it only has a chance. Sometimes what it needs more than anything else is seeming neglect. For women had lustrous and luxurious tresses before there were any hair tonics and restoratives and electric massage. And if you notice it is not always the woman who devotes the most time to hair treatment whose hair is thickest and in best condition.

One of the worst things that you can do for your hair is to keep it forever confined under a hat. That is the way the housewife so often has better hair than the woman whose duties keep her very much dressed for the street. Another very bad thing for the hair is to overdo the hair curling process. Some women as soon as they take out the pins, that confine their hair in one position all day, after a hurried brushing, twist it into kinks or other curling devices that restrict just as much as does the day time position. There is hardly a time when the hairs are not being given more or less strain, hardly a time when they are allowed the free play of air and ventilation.

And of one thing beware—that is, the hair dresser and shampooer you cannot vouch for. In fact she must be more than superficially clean. She must practice as thorough sterilization of her implements and her hands as we expect from the dentist or surgeon.

Caring for Highways.
In caring for highways—used now ten times as much as they were a year ago—nothing could fit the case so well as "a stitch in time saves nine."

Cellars for Vegetables.
Storage cellars for vegetables need a cool temperature. If there is a furnace in the cellar, partition off the space for storage.

This is a distinctly new and effective opera cloak of lustrous black satin, with bands of black velvet placed near the skirt edge and on the cuffs. The collar is a broad band of mink.

COATS FOR LITTLE MISSES

Chinchilla Cloth, Cheviot Serge, and Fur Trimming are Favorites—Capes Not Practical.

Chinchilla cloth is always a favorite and the gray chinchilla coats have been fitted this year with small gray squirrel collars, making them extremely good looking. For general wear these heavy coats will be found smart and practical.

Cheviot serge is a new fabric this season. It is made up only in dark blue and has a rather wide, heavy stripe which will not always recommend it for a small child, though it is stylish. The dressier coats for little girls are made up in velvet, but the broadcloths in the soft, pretty baby shades are more favored.

A trimming of some sort of fur, in very narrow banding, dresses these cloth coats beautifully, the dark fur contrasting handsomely with the light colored material. A favorite color is rose, next in popularity being the lovely blue known as Belgian.

Military capes for little girls are seen, but as it is hard enough to keep small folks warm in the tightest fitting garments the capes are not practical. Heavy coats of fur are very smart, nutria especially and gray squirrel being most desirable.

FIBET OPEN TO CHRISTIANS

Officials Have Invited Missionaries to Enter Freely into the "Forbidden Land."

Those disciples of Christ who interest themselves in foreign missions are aroused over an invitation coming to American disciples from Tibet, according to the Boston Evening Transcript. This land, occupying the "roof of the world," has heretofore been practically closed to all foreigners. That it has been so was due, so Tibet officials tell American disciples, to the influence of China. Now Tibet has thrown off Chinese control and one of its first acts is to appeal for Christian missionaries. The disciples have a mission station at Batang, one of the farthest west cities of China, nearly 3,000 miles up the Yangtze river.

A venturesome American doctor, sent out by the disciples, journeyed 18 days farther west, getting into Tibet and into a city wherein disease in its worst form, unattended and not understood, ravaged the people. The doctor set up an impromptu clinic and dispensary. The relief was so great that one of the highest civil officials in all Tibet begged him to stay, or if he could not do so to return, build a hospital and official Tibet would help him.

Now the disciples argue that here is a call they are not at liberty to ignore. Their missionary society has acted to this effect. "An appeal has been made for four families, two of them physician families, to go. It is said there are no hospitals, no churches, no schools, no Christian agencies of any kind in that country of 4,000,000 people."

ESSENTIAL THINGS ARE TO BE CONSTANTLY IN MIND—DISPOSE OF SURPLUS COCKERELS.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The general features of poultry banding, if adhered to by farmers, farmers' wives, by city dwellers, and by those who did exceedingly well, in spite of being carried on such a scale, for the German courtiers found that the imperial favor was dependent upon their patronizing the imperial dairy. In this way the old emperor created a huge milk monopoly in various cities, and reaped a correspondingly large profit. Kaiser Wilhelm himself had been commercial instincts, and had a finger in most of the big German undertakings. In Germany it was currently reported that Ballin was merely the figure-head of the North German Lloyd line of steamships, and that the kaiser was the real man at the helm, and the same thing was said of many other money-making concerns.

RIFLE THAT BOONE CARRIED

Old-Fashioned Flint Lock Said to Have Been Brought to Wisconsin Town by Southerner.

Daniel Boone's rifle, a genuine old-fashioned flint lock, carried by Boone on many a perilous trip in the dark and bloody hunting ground of Kentucky and on his famous Indian hunting expeditions, was recently brought into a hardware store in a small town in southwestern Wisconsin for much needed repairs. It is now the property of a Mr. Rafter, formerly of Mississippi, who recently traded his 2,300 acre plantation for Wisconsin property and has moved his effects north. The rifle was given him by a doctor, to whom it had been given by an aged hermit living in the mountains of Tennessee.

The rifle is a formidable affair, a real "long rifle," one of the type that gave the nickname of the "long rifles" to our western frontiersmen. It has a barrel 46 inches long, is 45 caliber, a flint lock with a patchbox of Inlaid silver, and weighs ten pounds. The end of the butt is set with a wild boar's tusk, and has the double or set trigger. On the side of the stock are carved with a jackknife the words, "Boon's Tru Fren," on the walnut stock the initials D. B. and five most significant and sinister notches, each notch standing for "one good Injun." At the lower end of the stock is a long and deeply cut gash said to have been cut by an Indian tomahawk thrown at Boone. What happened to the Indian is not recorded.

The rifle, badly broken in shipment, has been repaired and is now on exhibition.—Exchange.

Avery's Pride.

Conservative—By the way, Avery, I understand you want the universal franchise!

Avery—Yes!

Con.—Why, man, do you want your wife to become a politician?

Avery—It isn't that exactly. First is, she has always been a politician.

Con.—Well, what is the reason?

Avery—'I ride, pride, my boy—pard!

Con.—How so? I don't see the connection.

Avery—I don't like the idea of being married to a human being who is classed with the idiots!

ROAD BUILDING

ISSUE WEATHER FORECASTS.

Aid for Automobile and Motortruck Traffic During Winter Over Lincoln Highway.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The weather bureau of the United States department of agriculture has arranged, in co-operation with the state highway commission of Pennsylvania, to aid the automobile and motortruck traffic during the winter over the Lincoln highway between Pittsburgh and Harrisburg by giving out daily information of the weather conditions prevailing over the route and issuing weather forecasts and warnings of heavy snows and cold waves for the region traversed. The plan is for the assistant superintendents of highways at points along the route to report to the weather bureau office at Pittsburgh at eight o'clock each morning by telephone or telegraph the depth of snow or ice on the highway, giving its general condition. These reports are published in the newspapers and furnished to the different automobile clubs, thus becoming available to automobile and motortruck drivers passing over the highway. The forecasts and warnings are given public distribution and telegraphed to the superintendent of highways at Harrisburg, who gives instructions to his forces along the highway to make provisions for the anticipated weather conditions. This service was in operation last winter and gave great satisfaction. The weather bureau is ready to give similar service to other traffic routes as may be desired.

DRAGGING IS OF IMPORTANCE

Road Improvement May Well Be Considered Reconstruction Measure—Increases Farm Values.

Roads should not be neglected at this time in our endeavor to increase food production. Road improvement might well be deemed a reconstruction measure. In many communities they are much better than in others because the farmers are back of the good roads movement. They realize that a good road saves labor, time, horse flesh and automobile repairs and in addition increases the selling value of the farm. Every progressive farmer should have a road drag and not be afraid to use it. A well-dragged road is a well-crowned road, and a well-dragged road. The dragging should follow each rain. If properly used it will bring a thin layer of earth toward the center of the road at each dragging. The travel will roll and solidify it between rains.

On roads where too much crown has been formed the angle of the drag can be reversed. A few draggings will reduce the high crown to a more level and much safer road for fast automobile traffic.

Power for Good and Evil.

Into the hands of every individual is given a marvelous power for good or for evil—the silent, unconscious, unseen influence of his life. This is simply the constant radiation of what a man really is, not what he pretends to be. Life is a state of constant radiation and absorption; to exist is to radiate; to exist is to be the recipient of radiations.

THE LATE WILLIAM H. BOWMER.

In the passing from life unto death of William H. Bowmer, one of Cloverport's oldest and most noble citizens, and a personal friend and neighbor of the Editor, we feel deeply the loss of one whose life was an open book, known to his own, and to his friends, to have been that of love and charity, in words and deeds, for all men. His supreme excellence was in his simplicity; simplicity in character, in manners, and in living. He abhorred pretense. He was a man of sound judgement and of high principles—a legacy that comparatively few men are able to leave to those who follow in their steps.

FARM AND STOCK

Mrs. Bettie Robertson of Lodiburg, sold 40 turkeys which brought her $123.13. Who can beat it?

Mr. H. H. Norton of Webster, shipped a car load of hogs to Louisville recently, and he reported good prices for same.

Mr. James Harris of Garfield has been in Webster buying tobacco. His purchasers were as follows: Ed Haynes, $25 a round; Garmen St. Clair, $30 a round; Rufus Parks, $21.50 a round; Milt Looney, $25 a round.

It is rumored that Ben S. Clarkson is in the field for a million pounds of tobacco. He has, so the writer has been told, been offering $23 for dark and $30 for Burley. This is what the Farm Journal would turn, "High Farming in Breckinridge."

Mrs. Frank C. Mattingly of The Castle, Cloverport has already had results from her advertisement in The Breckinridge News, of the sale of her fine birds.

Amos Mattingly of Lodiburg, has purchased Roscoe Hendry's farm near Raymond. Consideration $6000.

Chas H. Drury of Irvington has purchased from Faurest-Stith of Elizabethtown, a topnotcher boar. On Feb. 1, L. A. Faurest and Bart Stith are to have a sale of pure bred Durocs. Notice their advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

County Agent Jas. W. Harth is insisting that all the farmers attend the Farmers' Week in Lexington, Jan. 28, 29, 30 and 31. Mr. Harth knows how valuable these meetings are to farmers therefore he doesn't want them to miss a good thing when it is so near at hand.

A. T. Beard of Hardinsburg has sold his fine saddle horse named, "Mac" to Dr. Huff of Beaver Dam, for $250.

Thomas Ryan of Mattingly finished delivering his crop of 20,000 lb of dark tobacco to Allen Jennings, last week. Mr. Ryan sold early and got top prices of $20 round. The early birds this year seemed to have captured the big prices.

Miss Lizzie Blake of this city sold $20 worth of eggs during the month of Dec.

Mr. Wm. Hall of Webster has rented his farm to his son, Sam Hall, or "Rastus" as his friends know him. This is an instance of "like father like son," both men are good farmers.

Geo Jolly and Son sold their crop of 7000 pounds of tobacco to Perc Beard at $22½ round.

J. D. Aldridge was in Hardinsburg on Monday of last week and sold his crop of 2000 pounds of Burley to Drane and Pile for $30 round. Mr. Aldridge says he expected to beat everybody in the county in price.

W. J. Basham sold ¼ acres in the patch for $1600; and Huse Alexander sold 1 hhd. at $58.

SCHOOL NEWS AND VIEWS

By J. Raleigh Meador, Superintendent.

1. How does plant food in the soil available?

By the action of bacteria and acids given off from decaying matter upon the soil particles.

2. What soil conditions help the work of these bacteria?

A well drained soil with plenty of lime and organic matter.

3. How can organic matter be obtained?

By turning under all crop residues and crops grown for this purpose.

4. How else does organic matter or humus benefit the soil?

By holding moisture like a sponge, by making the soil loose and porous and by making it warm up earlier in the spring.

5. What kind of a plant should be turned under for organic matter and why?

A legume, because it takes nitrogen from the atmosphere and leaves it in the soil.

6. What are some legumes?

All the clovers, alfalfa, soy beans, cow peas, beans, vetches and others.

7. How do legumes take nitrogen from the air?

By means of the bacteria growing on the roots which form in clusters called nodules.

8. What is very essential to a good growth of legumes, and why?

Lime because it makes a fit home for the bacteria.

9. How does lime make the soil fit for legumes?

By neutralizing the acids in the soil.

10. Should we use burnt lime or ground limestone?

Ground limestone.

Mr. Hovey Wardrip of this place and Miss Lillian May Nally of Louisville were married in Cannelton, Saturday, Jan. 18, 1919. They are making their home here, and the groom is employed in the Murray Roofing Tile Company.

Where Methodist Boys of the West WITH THE HOME BOYS SERVICE

Arrives In The U.S.

Roy Chapin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Chapin has arrived in the States according to this letter to his family. Chapin has been experienced enough of the hardships of war to find that soldering in the cantonments over here was paradise to what he went through with. He says futher:

Dear Mother and Family: I received your letter Christmas day. It is the first mail I have gotten since I came over, I then wrote you a card to send the next day, but when the next day came we had orders to go to the boat, so I now have the card in my pocket. Am away out in the ocean now, started the 26th. We are about one third of the way over, having splendid weather and getting along fine. But we will be longer coming back than we were going over. We went over on the British ship Aquitania in seven days. We are now on the U. S. S. Battleship Georgia; will be about twelve days coming and will land at Newport News, Va. We were all awfully sick the first day out but everybody is well now and wants to eat the whole boat up. I have gotten poor but I think I will soon gain it back when I get half a chance. I have had many hardships which I will tell you about when I get home. I will be on the water when the old year goes out and the new year comes in. They say we are to have a turkey dinner on New Year's day; it is reported that we are to have 1800 pounds turkey on board.

Didn't Get His Christmas Box.

I never received the Christmas box you sent me. Hardly expect it will come back to the States to find me, but I think I can afford to miss it to get back to the U. S., altho I would have been more than glad to have gotten it while I was over there.

Don't know yet what Camp we will be sent to when we get over, or how long it will be before I get home, not long I don't think. But I do know it will take me several days to clean up before I am fit to come home. We all had our hair clipped close before we came over you can imagine about how I look when I get there. Guess all the other boys around have already gotten home. They will never know the hardships of war.

Soldering in U. S. A. Paradise.

Soldering in the U. S. A. was a paradise compared with this over here. But I am proud to have this much start on my way back, and to be in as good condition as I am.

I will close for today as I am doing some bad writing anyway. Will write some more in a few days and mail when I land.

New Year's Day.

Well Mother, we are still sailing along with nice weather; it is warm and the sun is shining pretty and you can sit out on the deck in perfect comfort.

We have just eaten dinner and we sure had turkey and plenty of it too. We get more and better to eat on this boat than we have since we left the States and we certainly appreciate it too for we had a pretty hard living while we have been away. I have a good appetite now, and think I will go to gaining in weight right away.

We have a few cases of sickness on board but nothing like I would think there would be considering the circumstances under which we have lived.

Will write more when I get nearer the shore.

Sunday Jan. 5th 1919.

Will write a few more lines this Sabbath morning. We have just had church services. This sounds curious, doesn't it? But we have a Chaplain, a piano, song books and all that is necessary for holding services. Had service last Sunday too, but I hope we will not be on here another Sunday.

We travel from 325 to 345 miles every 24 hours. We may get in by Tuesday the 7th. We have passed the time off very well to take us so long. It is a long, long way across, 3600 miles to where we are going.

I may be quarantined for a few days, and we may not be discharged as soon as we think so I can't tell when I will get home, but I think now we will make it across all right.

Am sending you some pictures of this ship. You can look at them now and I will tell you of them when I get home. This is the first Sunday in the new year and I wish you knew where I am for I know you are uneasy about me for it has been so long since you have heard from me. But I know you are trusting in Him to take care of me and guide my footsteps, and I feel that He has, so you must be contented from the time you get this letter until I get home for when you get this letter you will know I am on land.

I close with love for home and family.

Your son, Roy Chapin, Battery

B. 6th French Artillery, A. E. F. France

From Robert Simmons.

Mr. Harvey Simmons of Glen Dean is the recipient of the letter following from his son, Robert who is still in France, but who hopes to be home soon. Sgt. Simmons, thinks the French have queer customs and "they are at least 1200 years behind," he says. His letter given in detail:

Dear Folke at Home: I will write you a short letter today as I am not busy and am feeling fine except some cold. Pardon me for not writing more often as paper is a scarce article here and it is also hard to find a place to write.

I hope you are all well. I wish I could hear you sometimes but I have given up hopes. I had a letter from Stella and one from Xetta, yesterday the first mail had since I've been here. Hopes He's Moving Toward Home.

We are ready to move again, but I don't know where, towards home. I hope as I can't talk French and I get disgusted. France is at least 1200 years behind this age. If you could see how they farm, you would laugh. They use wooden plows, and wear wooden shoes, and everything else is just as queer.

I suppose you have heard the people here are hungry. That is a fake, but I suppose they would be if it were not for the U. S. There seems to be plenty of beer and, most all other drinks which always comes first with all the French people that I have seen. The towns here are quite different from what they are in the States. I haven't seen a pair of good horses since I left Camp.

Sunshine Scarce In France.

We certainly have rain here. I landed in France Nov. 11th, and have only seen the sunshine about a half-dozen times, so you see we have plenty of mud. We are about 20 or 30 miles from DeJon, but I don't know which direction.

Meets Morgan Eskridge.

I ran on to Morgan Eskridge over here. Was sure proud to see him. He is the only boy from home that I've seen. Tell his father that he is looking fine. Stella said Walter is dead, died in Camp. Was sure sorry to hear it. Tell Emmett and Zetta I shall write them as soon as I can. Send me Gilbert Glasscock's address if you can. Also tell me where Walter Stone is now. When you write to Dennie tell him I'll write him the first chance.

Thinking Of Planting A Crop.

I don't know whether I am going to get home in time to plant a crop or not. You know nothing is certain. Have any of the boys come home from the Army yet?

I would love to send some views from here so you would have some idea how things look here. I'll tell you more about France and its customs when I get home. I want you to write me often. Perhaps the letters will follow me up. There has not been a one in my Company had any mail 'till yesterday, and I'll tell you we are hungry for some.

Tell everybody "Hello" for me. Would love to be there Christmas, but can't. Well I will close. Will write more next time. Hope this reaches you and hope I'll hear from you soon. With love, From, Sgt. Robt. Simmons F. R. S 346, France.

Corp. Floyd Carter

Writes The Editor.

Corp. Floyd Carter, a Cloverport boy, and well known here, writes Mr. Babbage of his whereabouts, and mentions several boys from Breckinridge county, whose friends will be glad to hear from them in this way. Corp. Carter's letter follows:

Anovours, France, Dec. 30th, 1918
Dear Mr Babbage: The thought just struck me that maybe some of the readers of The Breckinridge News would like to know that the close of the war found old Carter very much alive. I am known to the outfit as "Old Battle"

There are still a few of the 84th home boys together. We lost two of our best friends last week. One was Sgt. Walter Meador, he is now camping on the Rhine. He has the honor of being part of the watch up there. The other one was Stanley Gray of Custer. He is a member of the Guard of Honor in Paris for the President of the U. S. No wonder he got it. If you knew him you would know the reason. He is a lad about 6 ft. 4 in. tall and every inch a soldier.

Another fellow in the outfit was congratulated last week by all when he received the news of the arrival of a fine girl at his home. He is known to us as "Serg. Hick" but his real name is Lee Hickerson from Sample. Hubert Livers of Irvington, known to us as "Old Toppy," is still with us. "Topy" has decided to quit soldering now as the war is over. All he Relic of Long-Past Age.

While cutting peat in the Leithen headwater area, the shepherds unearthed a horn, which may have belonged to Bos primigenius or Bos longifrons, the wild oxen that roamed over Britain from the glacial age to near historic times. It was found at a depth of four feet from the surface, and the shepherds also averred that there was a small patch of brown hair attached, which is quite probable, as the peat would act as a preservative. —London Mail.

LIBERIA IS REACHING OUT

Tribes of That Country, It is Said, Are Accepting the Teachings of the Missionaries.

Pienyono Gbe Wolo, a Liberian of the Kru tribe, who graduated from Columbia university, says:

There never has been a scientific census of Liberia, but the population is estimated at from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000, and not more than 15,000 are Americo-Liberians, the descendants of liberated slaves. The remainder belong to tribes which speak four different languages and offer only nominal submission to the government. The Kru elect their kings by the selection of the most available man of the royal house. In the Jarroway tribe the king is an absolute monarch for the reign of six years, and is then put to death. Other tribes also follow different customs.

The tribes do not acknowledge the government of Monrovia, because they feel that it does not protect them. By treaty the United States government is required to help the Americo-Liberians against the tribes, and in 1912 this country helped put down a rebellion of the Kru.

The constitution of Liberia has a literacy test, which has heretofore excluded most of the natives from voting, as the central government is unable to undertake their education. The Gibras are being taught by Episcopal missionaries, and the Fullings, who are Mohammedans, are also gaining the franchise. The Kru are very ambitious and are also catching up. There are more than 50 Liberians of the native tribes studying in the United States.

WHEN RAILROADS WERE NEW

Engineers in Charge of Construction Work Had Ideas That Now Seem a Little Peculiar.

Light on strange ideas of pioneer railroad builders was thrown by Edward S. Jouett, general solicitor of the L. & N., in a talk before the Rotary club at Louisville.

"The Lexington-Frankfort line," said he, "was built with longitudinal stone sills capped with a strip of iron, and the numerous curves, which you have all noted, are said to have been purposely introduced upon the theory that they were an advantage in enabling the conductor the more easily to see the rear of his train. The coaches were two-story affairs—women and children below and men above—and the motive power was mules to the top of the hill above Frankfort. The train was let down the hill into the city upon an incline operated by a stationary engine.

"You may be interested, in passing, to learn that with the exception of a few miles near New Orleans, which antedated it about a week, this line from Lexington to Frankfort is the oldest railroad in the United States south of the Ohio and west of the Alleghenies. It was chartered in 1830—very early in railroad history, when we remember that the first railroad in the United States was built in 1826, and the first locomotive engine was operated in 1829."

FOUNDATION OF FARM LIFE
 Upon Good Roads Depends Marketing of Various Crops and Better Schooling of Children.

Good roads are the very foundation of country life. Upon them depends the marketing of what farmers grow, the pleasures of social life, and the better schooling of the children. If life is made better by good roads, surely they are worth paying for. There is nothing so much worth while as happiness. The interurban lines have increased it for a few; the auto has brought it to many more, and good roads everywhere would bless all.

Handy Plant in Desert.
 In the desert of Sonora, Mexico, there is a plant, the gunquel, which husband its water supply. The gunquel is a relative of the squash and pumpkin, and inhabits a locality in which practically all the rain falls within a period of six weeks. The base of the stem is swollen to form a hard, woody structure, which in time attains the size of a large squash. It is really nothing more than a vegetable reservoir designed to hoard up the scanty moisture and dole out the precious fluid in time of need.

UNITED STATES WILL NOT TRY EXPERIMENT OF PROHIBITION

Astonishing Action of an Individualistic People With a Strong Sense of Personal Liberty Is Brought About by Lessons of the Great War—Additional Legislation Planned to Enforce New Law—Will "Wets" Contest?—Ratification Details.

The United States of America has entered upon the tremendous social experiment of national prohibition of the manufacture, sale and use of alcoholic drinks. There will be abundant time to give the experiment a fair test since the prohibition is by constitutional amendment. To all appearances this mandate by the American people against the use of alcohol is intended to be absolute and final. We have written it into organic law—into magna charta—in the form of the eighteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

The experiment is a tremendous departure from previous tendencies of the American people. We are an individualistic people, with a strong sense of personal liberty. Yet here we have set out to regulate personal habit, not by statute, but by constitutional amendment.

And the manner of the passing of this constitutional amendment is quite as remarkable as the amendment itself. Action on the seventeen previous amendments to the Constitution has taken between nine months and forty-three months, an average of about two years. The resolution providing for this eighteenth amendment was passed by congress December 17, 1917. On January 16, 1919, its ratification by the states is accomplished.

What has brought about this ratification so quickly? Obviously the National Prohibition party has had practically nothing to do with its accomplishment. The answer evidently is that the war has brought it about.

Prohibition is both an economic question and a moral question. The war set the American people to looking at prohibition from both viewpoints. We got accustomed to the thought that grain was better eaten as food than swallowed as liquor, inasmuch as we were told that food would win the ident of the United States and president of the senate.

 I certify that this joint resolution originated in the senate.
JAMES M. BAKER, secretary.

The amendment was passed by the senate on August 1, 1917, and passed by the house on December 17 of the same year. It was passed by the senate with the house amendments on December 18. The vote in the senate was 65 to 20 and in the house 282 to 128.

Ratification by the States.
 The next step was ratification of this amendment by the states through their legislatures. This called for affirmative action by thirty-six states within seven years. Mississippi was the first state to ratify, both senate and house taking action January 8, 1918. Three other Southern states followed in January—Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina. Then came North Dakota. Other states followed in the order named, Nebraska being the thirty-sixth and completing the ratification.

Maryland.	West Virginia.
Montana.	California.
Texas.	Washington.
Delaware.	Indiana.
South Dakota.	Arkansas.
Massachusetts.	Illinois.
Arizona.	North Carolina.
Georgia.	Kansas.
Louisiana.	Alabama.
Florida.	Iowa.
Michigan.	Colorado.
Ohio.	Oregon.
Oklahoma.	New Hampshire.
Idaho.	Utah.
Tennessee.	Nebraska.
Maine.

While the amendment under its provisions does not become effective until one year from the date of its ratification, it seems likely that the country will become permanently dry July 1 next. This is the date on which the special war-time prohibition recently enacted by congress goes into effect. That law prevents the manufacture and sale of intoxicants for beverage purposes and remains in force until the demobilization of the nation's war armies is completed. Doubtless that emergency war-time measure will be effective over the several months that will elapse after July 1 until the constitutional bone dry act, now adopted, becomes effective.

Additional Dry Legislation.
 During the year following ratification congress and the several states will be called upon to pass legislation to enforce the amendment and to provide penalties for violations. It is probable a large force of agents under the direction of the commissioner of internal revenue will have to be appointed to enforce the law. Each state will have to provide machinery for the enforcement of the law in addition to the machinery provided by the federal government.

It is likely this additional legislation will be pushed through as fast as the days can push it. In some parts of the country at least they purpose to take full advantage of their victory.

For example, in Illinois a forecast of the Anti-Saloon league is this: In addition to the "search and seizure act" an act rigidly restricting the handling of liquor for medicinal, manufacturing, sacramental and scientific purposes; legislation covering doctors' prescriptions, which must be issued by a bona fide physician in writing, dated, diagnosing the illness and the purpose of its use; all railroad records of liquor shipments must be kept; drastic legislation regulating sale by druggists, with heavy penalty for violation.

The drys presumably will not confine their efforts to enforcing the law. They will doubtless take the question into politics of all kinds and make it an issue. They announce, for instance, in Chicago that they will ask all candidates for mayor to declare themselves on the strict enforcement of dry legislation. They will make it an issue in the spring campaign and will oppose any aldermanic candidate who does not toe the mark.

Will the Wets Contest?
 Will the wets contest the legality of the whole proceeding from the start?

war. We saw what the enforced sobriety of military service did physically, mentally and morally for young men who had indulged in liquor in peace times.

Some of our allies got into the war in a hurry because they had to—Belgium and France to save their lives, Great Britain to save its national honor. America took its time—a long time—and gradually worked itself up to the determination to fight. Doubtless much consideration of prohibition was a part of this slow process. So that when the opportunity came the states of the Union went over the top just about as the American marines and doughboys did in the Argonne.

Text of Amendment.
 Following is the full text of the prohibition amendment on which state legislatures are voting:
JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of each house concurring therein, that the following amendment to the Constitution be, and hereby is, proposed to the states to become valid as a part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of the several states as provided by the Constitution:

Section 1—After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Section 2—The congress and the several states have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Section 3—This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of the several states as provided in the Constitution within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress.

SAFE, GENTLE REMEDY BRINGS SURE RELIEF

For 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has enabled suffering humanity to withstand attacks of kidney, liver, bladder and stomach troubles and all diseases connected with the urinary organs and to build up and restore to health organs weakened by disease. These most important organs must be watched, because they filter and purify the blood; unless they do their work you are doomed.

Weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, dizziness, headache, stomach trouble, pains in the loins and lower abdomen, gravel, difficulty when urinating, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago all warn you of trouble with your kidneys. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are the remedy you need. Take three or four every day. The healing oil soaks into the cells and lining of the kidneys and drives out the poisons. New life and health will surely follow. When your normal vigor has been restored continue treatment for a while to keep yourself in condition and prevent a return of the disease.

Don't wait until you are incapable of fighting. Start taking GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules today. Your druggist will cheerfully refund your money if you are not satisfied with results. But be sure to get the original imported GOLD MEDAL and accept no substitutes. In three sizes. Sealed packages. At all drug stores.

be no less brave. As a parchment certificate from his commanding officer shows, in a raid near Voormezele, on June 19-20, he was "conspicuous for his determination and bravery." Despite a heavy artillery and machine-gun barrage, he reached the enemy trenches, cleared them, and finally covered the raiders' withdrawal, "showing complete disregard to his own safety."

Oil Near Old Indian Cemetery.
 Geologists are unable to explain the fact, proven in Osage county, that oil wells drilled adjacent to Indian cemeteries are good producers. Many such burial sites have been invaded by drillers and in more instances than one riches in crude oil have spouted forth. The first producer in the vicinity of Pawnee was drilled beside an Indian graveyard. It is on the summit of a high, rocky hill that overlooks the town.—From the Oklahoman.

For the present season, keep a careful watch of the hog drove for any signs of disease, particularly worms and cholera, and take prompt action to check it. A wiser plan is to take all necessary precautions against disease by adopting sanitary and other recommended preventive measures.

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS
CLOVERPORT, KY.

Robert Predicted Foch's Victory.
When Lord Roberts was in Canada ten years ago at the dedication of the Plains of Abraham park and playground he made this prediction: "They refuse to believe me, and we are asleep under a false security, for I do not hesitate to affirm that we will have a frightful war in Europe, and that Great Britain and France will have the hardest experience of their existence. They will, in fact, see defeat very near, but the war will finally be won by the genius of a French general named Ferdinand Foch, professor in the military school in Paris."

As a supplement to cornmeal for growing and fattening pigs the Wisconsin station found that ground soy beans proved about 10 per cent superior to wheat middlings, figuring the cost of the feeds as the same. The Indiana station compared rations of two parts of cornmeal and one part of soy beans with cornmeal and does is to sit around and talk about his girls back home. I believe we can keep him satisfied for a little longer tho, for there is still plenty of cognac in France. Sergt. Barbée of Stephenson talks of nothing but the store that he is going to open up when he gets back. Boyd Keith of Bewleyville and I get along fine together as we can console each other. You know we both thought it best to get married before we came to France.

There are a few more of the bunch that came in when I did with the first call. They are Beavin, Dawson and Quinn of Cloverport, Sam Noblet of McDaniels. Sam is our Mess Sergeant. I am telling about these fellows for I know they are like myself about writing.

As to myself, well, I haven't done anything of importance. Only eaten all the chow that Uncle Sam can afford to put out. When I get home I expect Carter's Confectionery will have to close for a few days until 'Old Battle' gets filled up.

Well, I guess the boys will tell the rest of the news when they get home. So I will close. From, Corp. J. F. Carter, 24th Co. 1st T. I. R. A. P. O. A. E. F. I. E.

BEST FEED FOR LAYING HENS

Mixture of Cracked Corn, Oats and Barley is Recommended—Exercise is Important.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

A good mixture for laying hens is four parts each of cracked corn and oats and one part barley or wheat, if available, which should be scattered in the litter. Provide four or five inches of good, clean litter.

A dry mash composed of equal parts of cornmeal, bran, middlings, ground oats and beef scrap should be kept in hoppers to which the fowls have access at all times.

Plenty of exercise increases the egg yield.

Cabbages, mangels, sprouted oats, cut clover and cut alfalfa make excellent green feed for poultry.

When wet mashes are fed be sure that they are crumbly and not sticky.

GOOD QUALITIES OF ROOSTER

More Apt to Be Carried to Females Than Males—Hens Always Take After Sire.

Roosters from high-priced layers are more apt to carry these qualities to their young than are hens of the same breeding. This is because in all animal life the male resembles the dam more than it does the sire and the female just reverse.

NO DANGER

"De Short says he doesn't go hunting because he might be mistaken for a deer."

"Gee, he wouldn't be mistaken for anything bigger than a gnat."

BEECH FORK

Fine weather. Everybody busy burning plant beds and preparing for a crop. Most of the farmers around here are talking of raising Burley this year.

Joe Morton on New Year's day while stripping tobacco had fire in a stove under some stripped tobacco that was hanging up and is got dry from the heat of the stove and took fire and burned up the barn, tobacco and all of Len Weatherholt's farming tools. The barn belonged to Len Weatherholt and one third of the tobacco. There were four acres of tobacco in the barn.

Mrs. J. M. Beatty visited her daughter, Mrs. James Mattingly of Glen Dean last Sunday.

Ben Blair moved from over on the pike to Mike Pophams this week to make crop this year.

J. E. Beatty and family have gone to Roseville to visit her mother, Mrs. Sarah Lions.

J. M. Beatty went to Friendship church last Sunday and took dinner with Alton Mason, who had just returned from France. He volunteered last February and has been on the battlefield and got over come with gas but is getting pretty well over it now.

Fred Davis and J. M. Beatty went to Cloverport last week.

Owen Pate has moved to Bob Blakes where he is going to board this year and make a crop on Hardy Walker's farm.

Richard Pate has moved on Homer Taul's farm to make crop this year.

J. E. Beatty and family were the guests of Fred Davis and family last Saturday night and Sunday.

Prohibition is both an economic question and a moral question. The war set the American people to looking at prohibition from both viewpoints. We got accustomed to the thought that grain was better eaten as food than swallowed as liquor, inasmuch as we were told that food would win the war.

Dear Judge: Yours received and would say that I was delighted to learn that you had safely dodged the submarines, sharks, whales, Cooties, flu Huns etc. You have been a lucky boy. You have done your bit. Take it from me Judge come home join the bachelors club enlist for life. Get married we mean settle down to quiet life. Surely two wars ought to be enough for you. When Henry not Johnnie comes marching home we will meet you at the depot give you a salute of twenty one guns, we will have the band to play "There Will Be A Hot Time In The Old Town Tonight." And say Judge just one more shot if you decide to join our club you will say after you get through with our goat that our setto with Maud was a tame affair. So good night Judge sweet dreams. Joe Mulhatton, Jr.

A meeting of the American Tobacco Co., known as the Trust held their annual election at the Waldorfastoria the following gentlemen were elected for the year 1919. President Allen Jennings, Hites Run; Vice President Curt Pate, Balltown; June Carter says he was convinced three months ago this would happen. Why because he walked into Curt Pates office to pay his taxes Allen was figuring with a pencil had the second one sharpened stuck behind his ear Curt was sharpening the third one. He knew that men doing business like that was bound to climb the ladder.
